

BELLY PAN

363,67€

36220-101. An exceptionally classy and high-quality carbon component. And not only because it looks amazing and transforms the RR into a real one-off, but also because it's more lightweight than the original. The front-end spoiler simply replaces the original plastic component and does not require any additional mounting parts. Extremely lightweight and sturdy carbon-fibre hybrid material, coated with a polished hard plastic layer that penetrates into the material and ensures optimum protection. Supplied with a General Operating Licence (ABE). Weight approx. 240g
