The long-established company Krauser has surpassed itself again with this innovative roll bar. Technically and visually this steel pipe roll bar is a masterpiece. Tailored to the body of the roadster, it safely and reliably saves the R from costly and expensive repairs in case of a snag, but is nevertheless visually discreet in the boxer line.

The facts:

- More secure, lighter, and shapelier roll bar
- Reliable protection for the cylinder and valve cover
- Uniform distribution of power on 6 points
- Vibration-free reinforcement with silent blocks
- Simple assembly on the original points
- Complete ground and lean angle freedom
- Perfect fit
- Minimal weight
- Curved precision steel pipe
- Shatter-proof
- Fits discreetly with the design of the roadster
- Easy to maintain, can be maintained without disassembly
